WRITING

Voices

by Isabel, 826 Boston

TYPE

Voices telling me what to wear

Voices telling me what to be Making my decisions for me

Feeling like I have to put a bag over my head to fit into the community

Voices cause drama

Why are they inside me

Drama causes pain

Had too much pain in my life already

How can i destroy them

Or when can they leave

I don’t feel free

As a matter a fact

I never was free

And I never will feel free

because they are still inside me
