

Exploring Connections

Choose 3-5 of the things you underlined and write them in the top row. Then, write about why you connected to each of those things and why that connection matters to you. Continue in your writing journal if you need more space.

What I underlined:
I connected to this because...
This connection is important to me because...					