

Hero's Secret Lair Haikus

Use the lines below to write a haiku as a hero client and engineer to design a secret lair as requested.

1st line: 5 syllables (client request)
2nd line: 7 syllables (client request)
3rd line: 5 syllables (engineer response)

Client request: _____

Client request: _____

Engineer response: _____

Client request: _____

Client request: _____

Engineer response: _____

Client request: _____

Client request: _____

Engineer response: _____

Hero's Secret Lair Haikus

Use the lines below to write a haiku as a hero client and engineer to design a secret lair as requested.

1st line: 5 syllables (client request)
2nd line: 7 syllables (client request)
3rd line: 5 syllables (engineer response)

Client request: _____

Client request: _____

Engineer response: _____

Client request: _____

Client request: _____

Engineer response: _____

Client request: _____

Client request: _____

Engineer response: _____

Haiku - Secret Lair Brainstorming

Use the prompts to help you generate ideas for your hero's secret lair.

Hero name: _____

Lair location (circle one in each row): Urban (in a city) Rural (in the country)

Underground Above Ground

If the lair is in a city, what type of building is it likely to be in or under?

If the lair is in the country, will the lair be a stand-alone structure or part of another building or landform?

Types of activities the lair will be used for (circle any that apply):

Hiding Storing vehicles Inventing tools and gadgets Creating plans
Tracking nemeses (enemies) Changing from everyday identity into hero Research

Other: _____

How many rooms will the lair need? _____

What will keep the secret lair secret (how will it be camouflaged)?

Haiku - Optional Writing Prompt

Imagine that your hero has to get a quick note to their friends to let them know they are safe and hidden. Using the haiku structure (3 lines, 17 syllables), write another secret lair haiku from the perspective of your hero that also acts as a secret message to their friends and family. How can you reveal your hero's location and surroundings without giving away too much? How will they know your hero is safe? Go!

Title: _____

Haiku - Optional Writing Prompt

Imagine that your hero has to get a quick note to their friends to let them know they are safe and hidden. Using the haiku structure (3 lines, 17 syllables), write another secret lair haiku from the perspective of your hero that also acts as a secret message to their friends and family. How can you reveal your hero's location and surroundings without giving away too much? How will they know your hero is safe? Go!

The Acorn Avenger

Jalen, 826NYC

Surrounded with green,
a silver horn and curled tail
is where you'll find me.

* * *

Abundant with gear,
woven from a straw basket,
hidden in the woods.

* * *

A perfect hideout,
a pyramid of supplies,
the place where I spy.