

If Poems

In an “If” poem, the writer imagines what could happen if they were something else or someone else.

What or who would you like to imagine yourself as? _____

Draw a picture of it.	Where might you go?
What might you see?	What might you do?

Circle any strong words you want to use in your poem.

Then, write it!

