Emulation Poetry: Drafting!

Directions: Use at least one of the ideas in your brainstorm to write your poem. To start your poem, choose one of the options or start in a different way.

Option #1: Start with your "ghost line."
Option #2: Start with a clear image the reader can picture.
Option #3: Start with a strong image.

Try to use the same organization, format of words and lines, of the poem you chose.

When You Finish:

Step #1: Give your poem a title.
Step #2: Use the revision folder to make at least two improvements.
Step #3: Read your poem aloud. Fix any unclear parts.
Step #4: Share your poem with your table. Listeners should answer:

1. What "popped" (stood out, that you enjoyed) in the poem?
2. How did you connect to the poem? What did it make you feel or think? Why?
