Under my superhero's costume is her skin,
Under her skin is her heart,
Under her heart is the power
To be a great friend
To have super strength and speed.
Under her heart is the power
To be invisible and fly over cityscapes.
She can talk to animals and shoot marshmallows
And other food from her hands.
Under her heart (besides all of her powers)
She is a force for the good, great, and the extraordinary.
