I would like to say thank you. Thank you so much for putting your life on the line every single day to help others. All of you truly are making a difference in this world. The amount of courage and compassion that it takes to work in these conditions is huge, and not everyone would be willing to do it. So it is greatly appreciated that you all have given it your 100 percent of effort and dedication. So many families are suffering, but you all have the pleasure to say that you helped, which is amazing. This pandemic has made things swirl out of control, but the reason we have balance is because of you. Times are tough, but it will get better. Your hard work does not go unnoticed.
