Dear me, myself, and I,

I like that I am not intelligent in traditional ways.

I like that I'm attractive in untraditional ways.

I like that I'm sporty and swim and play football,
soccer, and baseball.

I like that I have near perfect vision.

I like that I have respectful manners.

I like that I'm really tall. I like that I'm loyal to my friends.

I'm glad that I'm good at playing video games.

I like that I'm a male.

I like that I'm still young.

Sincerely,

Pancho
