Dear Mom,

You are so great, my mom, you give me life. Without your hard work, there would be no me.

You give me so much love. It makes me feel warm.

You love me. I love you!

You are selfless, my mom. From the beginning of my birth, you gave me many things to help me grow. My favorite food, beef noodles, my favorite clothes, a black long dress, a favorite toy, my white teddy bear, a favorite drink, orange juice, the books I like about science, and much else. I like art, so you gave me pens, paper, color pens, and many things else about art. Thank you, my mom.

When I'm in danger, you always save me. When I had a heart problem and I had a head injury, you give me security, my mom.

You tell me to learn the world; you are my first teacher. You taught me about the animals and plants, how to be safe, how to paint, and how to write and speak. I'm so happy and excited, my mom.

You always help me with everything. Your support is my motivation.

Thanks, my mom!

Your daughter,

Jin
