WRITING

My Latino Self

by Arianny, 826 Boston

TYPE

Poetry

Latino,

a blooming generation of a beautiful culture

With a little Sazon!

We bring Bachata and delicious Arroz con Habichuela

We bring endless love for everyone, Good or Bad.

Latino comes in a rainbow

Of melanin,

It doesn't make a difference in our Culture.

Being Latino in the US, we are judged

On how we may speak or on how we may appear.

But that doesn't keep us from being proud of who we are.

We are Latino.

Our People bring amazing friendships

And our music will make you move your hips.

The language we speak

is very unique.

Now don't forget us, we are people too.

Not just any people

WE ARE LATINO!
