Beans, Rice, and Chicken

Oh Beans, Rice, and Chicken, you give people energy to control their bodies.
You keep me alive.
Your smoke caused a fire in my mouth.
I put sour cream to put out the fire.
Oh Beans and Rice, you can let me breathe underwater forever.
Purple beans, brown rice, and orange chicken taste a little greasy, smell spicy, and feel bumpy.
Beans and Rice,
I thank you because you make me feel better just by eating you.
At my house for lunch,
I enjoyed
its flavor and soft taste, its crisp flavor.
It helps people stay healthy.
It's keeping lives alive.
So eat it!
