

Retelling Poem: After Eve L. Ewing

Directions:

1. Choose a moment when you witnessed or experienced something that felt unjust. It could be a moment at school, in your neighborhood, on the bus, at home, etc.
2. Write out the details of what happened in 3-5 sentences.
3. Re-imagine the ending; what would you like to happen next? It can be magical or supernatural, like in Eve Ewing’s poem “four boys on Ellis [a re-telling].”
