

Brochures to Showcase YOU!

Directions: Think about your life, and what parts you would want to include in a brochure of everything you.

Brainstorm: Sections for Your Brochure

Think about sections that you might want to include in your brochure to give people an idea about what makes you, uniquely you! Brainstorm with your tutors and your teammates, or use some of the listed examples!

After you have brainstormed, CIRCLE SIX IDEAS TO USE AS SECTIONS FOR YOUR BROCHURE.

About the Author
Favorite places to visit or go
10 Things you may not know about me
Favorite foods/restaurants
My neighborhood/where I grew up
Favorite books/movies
When I grow up, I want...

Section 1: About the Author

What is your personal history? What do you want people to know about what makes you special? What is your background? Do you want to mention your school, family, interests, or favorite activities?

Section 4: Something That Might Surprise You To Learn About My

Neighborhood/Family: What is something that makes your neighborhood different than other cities? What is an interesting thing that not everybody knows about where you live or go to school?

Section 5: The Future

What do you want to be when you grow up? What do you want to happen around you? What would you wish if you could have any wish you wanted?

Now that you are finished planning, you can start the final draft of your brochure!
