You are my soldier.

Disciplined, physically and mentally tough.

I will always look up

member of the team

American soldier,

you show me

Loyalty

Respect

Personal courage

you are honored

you show me, to be what I am.

Don't care what others think.

Do what I love.

You show me who I am

What I am

What I love

What I believe.

We may argue and fight

but down deep inside my heart

I know what's right

And that's loving you.
