

WRITING

The Most Joyful Place on Earth

Dylan Sanderson, Grade 5, 826 NYC

TYPE

MEMOIR
NARRATIVE

GENRE

GRADE 5

In my opinion, the most joyful place on Earth is probably in our home with my family. I think that because when you are spending time with your family, you get a sense of comfort and joy. You are spending time with people you know and love. But my dream of the most joyful place on Earth would be a place where money grew on trees, lots of valuable items such as diamonds and gold can be found in pebbles and rocks. A world where coronavirus and global warming don't exist. In my most joyful place, everyone will get along. There is no such thing as evil or bullying in my most joyful place.