

WRITING

Ghost Dog Returns

by Alexander C.
Hernandez, Grade 4,
826 Valencia

TYPE

FANTASY/SCIFI
NARRATIVE

GENRE

GRADE 4

Last summer, the underground city looked like dirty buildings. It had a doghouse. Next, the dog went down to the underground city alive. But when he went down to the city, he died, then became a ghost. The dog turned as white as a piece of paper. The underground city had magic in there. Ghost dog was surprised and tried to go find his owner. The ghost dog got lost at the park. The ghost dog sniffed his way out. Sniffing, he found a smell he knew and found his owner. The ghost dog started playing fetch with his owner. In the end, the person went to the park, and then he saw the ghost dog. Then, he saw the way out. After the ghost dog went out to play, he found other ghost dogs to be friends with.

This piece was originally published in 826 Valencia's Pack Your Candy Just in Case.