

WRITING

Baby Bird

by Charm R., Grade 5,
826 New Orleans

TYPEPOETRY*GENRE*GRADE 5

There was a baby bird

With many siblings I heard

His siblings were big and tall

And weren't scared to fall

Baby bird was full of fear

And he didn't want to shed a tear

He didn't want to budge

So he needed a lunge

To learn how to fly

Then he found that he wasn't

Going to die

So one day the little bird

Got the courage to spread his wings

And he did

This poem was first published in 826 New Orleans' original publication, Memories, Imagination, and Me.