

WRITING

My Family

by Ximena Torres, Age
9, 826 Valencia

TYPEPOETRY*GENRE*GRADES 3–5

From my mom, I learned how to earn something.

You will get something that you want if you work hard.

I live my life differently because Kim taught me to know things.

You need to listen, be respectful, and be helpful.

Thank you, April, for inspiring me to be a good friend.

From Mira, I learned to do counting by two.

From Mady, I learned my ABC's.

Thank you,

Mom and Mady and Mira and Kim and April,
for inspiring me to be cool!

From 826 Valencia's original publication, A Rainbow Made of Skittles.